Handcrafted & Historic - $110 per person

Tuesday, June 6, 2023

See the works of some of the Midwest's greatest artists including Indiana's largest Norman Rockwell collection. Revel in the majesty of a Beaux-Arts mansion that "Alka-Seltzer built" while admiring Tiffany's and Rodin's. You'll be amazed at the stories, admire the beauty, and learn how Elkhart County's history has impacted our nation on this multi-dimensional tour combining art, culture, history, and simple fun!

8:00 a.m.      Local step-on guide arrives at the Goshen Fairgrounds guide for the day

8:15 a.m.      Cardinal Bus Arrives at the Goshen Fairgrounds

8:30 a.m.      Depart Goshen for Elkhart

9:00 a.m.-10:30 a.m.                      Ruthmere Mansion Tour

Who remembers the famous Alka Seltzer advertisement, "Plop, plop, fizz, fizz, Oh, what a relief it is"? Elkhart, Indiana was the home to entrepreneur Mr. Albert Beardsley who helped found the company that created Alka Seltzer. His elaborate 1910 Beaux-Arts style house, Ruthmere, named after his deceased daughter Ruth, is available for your groups guided tour. You'll see a fine art collection including Tiffany leaded glass, Rodin sculptures, velvet window coverings, hand painted walls, and walnut woodwork.

10:45a.m. -12:15 p.m.                      Wellfield Botanic Gardens

Wellfield Botanic Gardens accepts as truth that mankind is inseparable from nature while sharing a natural and man-made environment of unique beauty that attracts, inspires, and educates. The Gardens are situated on 36 acres including 18 acres of water and includes a ½ mile paved walking trail-path to a variety of themed gardens featuring water displays, sculptures, plants and beauty of nature.

12:30-1:30 p.m.                              Irish Feast Lunch Buffet at Hotel Elkhart

Welcome to downtown Elkhart and the newly renovated historic Hotel Elkhart which has been a downtown Elkhart landmark since it opened its doors in the early 1920s. Back then, the city was on the cusp of a renaissance with a shining new theatrical palace on Main Street and a humble RV manufacturer that would soon make Elkhart a microcosm of the RV industry. And in the center of it all was this 100-room grand hotel, hosting America's highest dignitaries like Bob

Hope and JFK in jazz-age elegance that you can still see in our lobby and ballrooms today. In the late 1920s, the Athenian Ballroom was added, making Hotel Elkhart the tallest building in the city with the best view of the Elkhart River. In 2021, to the delight of the community, Hotel Elkhart returned to its original purpose as the city's downtown hotel, 98 years after its opening.

Irish Feast

- Pub salad, hard-boiled egg, house greens (spinach, arugula, Brussels, red cabbage), green beans, cucumber, tomato, blue cheese
- Whiskey glazed corned beef
- Colcannon mash
- Lentil cottage pie
- Guinness brats, caramelized cabbage, and bacon jam
- White fish cakes with dill tartar sauce
- Steamed carrots and potatoes
- Cheddar chive Irish soda bread
- Assorted desserts and cookies

1:45-2:45 p.m. Behind the Scenes Tour of the Lerner Theatre by the Friends of the Lerner

In 1924 Elkhart businessman, Harry E. Lerner, constructed a modern "theatrical palace" in downtown Elkhart. The 1,700-seat theatre hosted a variety of vaudeville, big band and theatrical reviews including stars such as Bob Hope. Today, the newly renovated Lerner Theatre captures the grandeur of its original 1920s design while being equipped with the finest structural, acoustic, technical, and theatrical requirements of today and tomorrow. You get a backstage look and more touring this impressive theatre.

12:00p.m.-1:45p.m. Tippecanoe Place Lunch, South Bend

Tippecanoe Place, with four main levels totaling 40 rooms and 20 fireplaces, is the embodiment of everything great wealth in the late 1800's could suggest. The 26,000 square-foot mansion was designed by Henry Cobb and built by local craftsmen for the Clement Studebaker family. Work on Tippecanoe Place was completed in 1889 at a total cost of $250,000. It would serve as the setting for many lavish parties, weddings, and balls. Guests would arrive by carriage and enter through the west doors. They would board the elevator - one of the first in the country - and be whisked upstairs to freshen up. The formally clad ladies and gentlemen would then descend the Grand Staircase into the Reception Area. Then, as today, Tippecanoe Place was known for its hospitality and as a gracious setting for fine dining. Lunch is a served plated meal.

2:00p.m.-3:30 p.m. Studebaker National Museum

Admire nearly 70 timeless vehicles, including one-of-a-kind classics like the 1934 Bendix, the 1956 Packard Predictor concept car and President Lincoln's Carriage. Tour its 50,000-square-foot "production line" and see military trucks and vehicles with state-of-the-art lifts. Revisit the early years of Studebaker and witness Studebaker's successful transition from horse-drawn to gasoline-powered vehicles. View the family's 1835 Conestoga Wagon, Presidential coupes from the 1930s and a 1916 Six fifty Touring Car. Enjoy the interactive learning stations and specialty exhibits.

3:15p.m.-4:15p.m. Visit Kuhns Orchard, Cannery & Amish Dairy Farm

A stop at Kuhn's Orchard Cannery and Dairy is an educational pleasure! Prepare yourself for a look at local commerce the Amish way. This dairy is part of a cooperative that provides a unique and natural dairy option for your daily glass of milk. Their signature cream-top milk comes in a variety of natural flavors, using only real ingredients. They believe in the importance of knowing where your milk comes from – and that's here – in Amish Country, Indiana. Take it – Shake it – Taste it, the milk speaks for itself. In keeping with the theme, they also produce fresh and homemade jams, apple butter, organic mother included vinegar and so much more. Visitors will see a working cannery; a cider press with a finish for the win in with a private jam tasting included. Enjoy a unique agricultural experience on a family-owned farm.

4:30p.m.-5:00p.m. Return to the Nappanee Center see the Evelyn Lehman Culp Heritage Collection

Founded at the Nappanee Public Library in 1971 this hidden gem is still maintained by the library today and tells the story of Nappanee through permanent, rotating, and special displays. Attractions include several “Hoosier” cabinets made in Nappanee, a tribute to the city’s six nationally known cartoonists, an Air Force One display and the historic John Hartman House and most recently the Emma Shrock Collection.

5:00p.m. Depart Nappanee for Goshen

5:30p.m. Arrive at the fairgrounds
